

Clash of generations: Vishy Anand vs Faustino Oro

by Press release

5/9/2025 – Chess fans are in for a treat: On 1 June the Italian town Pietrasanta will host a chess match between Faustino Oro, the world's youngest chess master, and former world champion Vishy Anand. The event, supported by the famous singer Andrea Bocelli, is part of a broader program that includes the Chess Roads exhibition from June 2 to 15, featuring 40 rare and original chess sets from Asia and Europe.

Clash of Generations – Champions at La Versiliana

The exhibition will be preceded on Saturday, June 1, by an extraordinary match between Faustino Oro, a 11-year-old Argentine prodigy, and former world champion Vishy Anand.

A David vs. Goliath clash evoking some of the most epic duels in chess history.
